

Kara Miller - BA (Hons, First), University of Nottingham, CIMA, ACMA

LOT Volunteer

Kara is a Management Consultant within the KPMG Financial Services Advisory practice, assisting businesses to become more efficient and developing solutions to address their current challenges. Prior to joining KPMG, Kara spent 6 years at JP Morgan Chase. Kara's experience extends to the international development sector where she spent one month at a small NGO in Kenya helping to build and sustain the financial management capacity of the organisation.

Kara has been involved with LOT for the past 6 years, providing insight into what it takes to be successful in the corporate environment. She has also accompanied students, as a chaperone, to a number of Nation Black MBA Business conferences.
