

Micheal Williams – BA (Hons), University of Sussex, MSc, Warwick University

LOT Director & LOT Alumni

Michael completed his early years education in Jamaica, arriving in the UK at the age of 11. He then went on to complete his secondary education at Kingsdale Foundation School in Southwark.

He arrived in the UK from Jamaica aged 11 in 2002. While studying assiduously at Kingsdale and St Francis Xavier College, he has been supporting and working with his father in his business ventures. He has taken a keen interest in his education and recently completed a BA Honours degree in Economics and Politics at the University of Sussex. He is now in the final stages of his studies at the University of Warwick where he is studying MSc Management for Business Excellence.

Micheal has attended the National Black MBA Association Business Conference in Atlanta, Georgia in 2006 and New Orleans, Louisiana in 2009. The experience has inspired him to start his own business. He is also the Director of Flake Bake Limited. Whilst at university, Micheal won a prestigious summer internship with the Royal Bank of Canada Capital Markets and hopes to work for them again in the near future.

He was also interviewed in wake of the riots on Radio 4's Today Programme about the dangers of street gangs. He is passionate about helping other young people and wants to see them achieve at the highest level. Since completing his Masters degree in 2013, Michael has taken a more proactive role in LOT in supporting students. LOT is extremely proud of Micheal's achievements and has supported him since he joined our leadership programme aged 14.
